

Geoffrey M. Ducanes

PhD Candidate and Teaching Fellow at University of the Philippines School of Economics. Also currently working at the Asian Development Bank as consultant in charge of the macroeconometric model of the Philippines. Co-authored several papers on income poverty and inequality in the Philippines with Dr. Arsenio Balisacan. Co-author of the Philippine Human Development Report 2002, a published paper on the prospects of MDG attainment in the Philippines, as well as several studies on the state of the education system in the country.