

Study Tour to Brazil on Social Promotion
The Experience of the Ministry of Social Development and Fight Against Hunger of the Brazilian Government

The National System for Food and Nutritional Security (SISAN)
General Overview

Brasília, DF
August, 2008

- The following institutions are part of SISAN (Article 11, Law 11.346/2006):

The National Conferences on Food and Nutritional Security (CNSAN);

The National Council on Food and Nutritional Security (CONSEA) – regulated by Decree 6.272, of 23/Nov/2007;

The Interministerial Forum on Food and Nutritional Security (CAISAN) – regulated by Decree 6.273, of 23/Nov/2007 and by Public Act (Portaria)/MDS 88, of 12/March/2008;

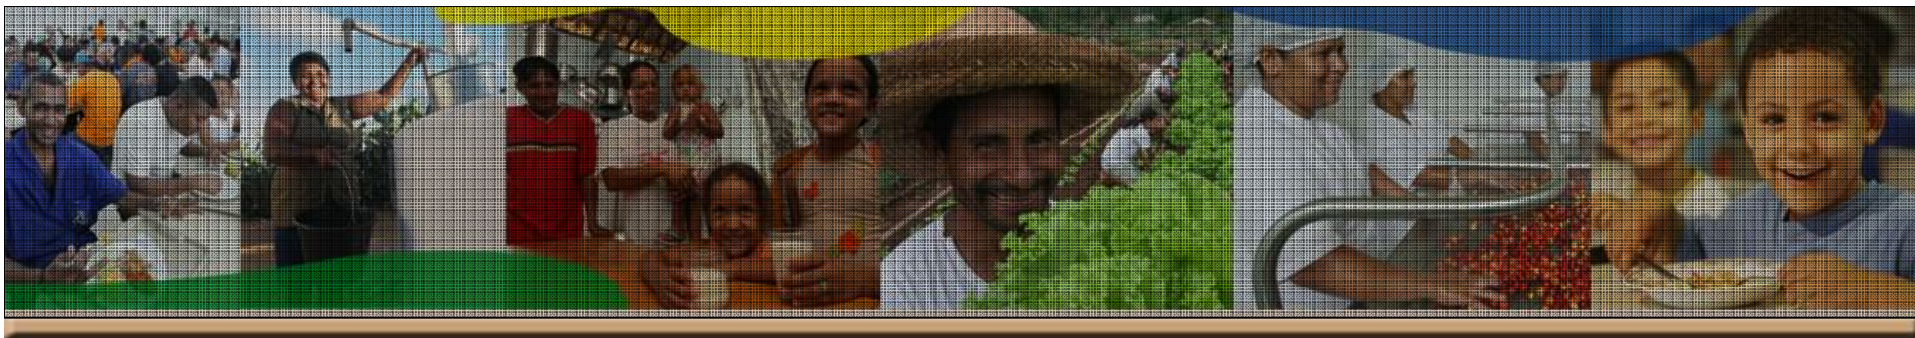

The Food and Nutritional Security organizations and institutions from the Federal Union, States, the Federal District and the Municipalities;

For profit and not for profit private institutions that wishes to join the criteria, principles and guidelines of SISAN.

Tender MDS/SESAN - Call for Proposals no. 01/2008

- Promotes the establishment and development of SISAN, supporting projects in order to consolidate the State System for Food and Nutritional Security;
- Uses government contracts between MDS (contracting party) and the State Government and the Federal District (contractor), with the fundamental participation of the State Councils for Food and Nutritional Security (stakeholders representatives);
- Built between the National Council (Federal CONSEA) and the Presidents of the State Councils (State CONSEAs) - as foreseen on Article 2, 1st Paragraph , Decree 6.272/2008;
- Main focus is the organization of the legal framework for Food and Nutritional Security by using the National System as a model.

MINISTRY OF SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT AND FIGHT AGAINST HUNGER

NATIONAL SECRETARIAT FOR FOOD AND NUTRITIONAL SECURITY

www.mds.gov.br

Esplanada dos Ministérios Bloco C Sala 405
70.046-900 – Brasília,DF

61 3433.1079/1119/1120

0800 707 2003

www.mds.gov.br

Ministério do Desenvolvimento
Social e Combate à Fome

