

Alice Sindzingre

Alice Sindzingre is a Research Fellow currently posted at the French public agency for research, the Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique (CNRS, Paris). She is also Research Associate at the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS, Department of Economics, University of London), and associate researcher in the Centre d'Etude d'Afrique Noire (CEAN, CNRS-Institut d'Etudes Politiques, Bordeaux). She has conducted research on development economics and political economy mostly in West Africa. She has served as a consultant for international organizations and governments. She has been a member of the Core Team of the World Development Report 2000/1 of the World Bank, 'Attacking Poverty'. She has published numerous articles in academic journals on a large range of topics, including poverty, globalisation, the political economy of development, and the theory of institutions in relation with development.