Melissa Andrade

Outline

1. Background

- Social Protection Policy Options in Africa
- Development Framework
- The wave of Cash Transfer Programmes

2. Classification of countries by level of Social Protection and Development – an overview

3. Country Experiences:

Mozambique, Kenya, Malawi, Ethiopia, Zambia, South Africa

4. Perspectives of the policy trend and lessons being learned

Background

•Social Protection:

featuring in DFID UK White Paper and the EU Policy Documents

IADB: Social Protection as a means to address macroeconomic and catastrophic shocks;

DFID: Rights based;

ILO: Emphasis on Social Security.

Common features:

Helping the most vulnerable, reducing risks, helping the most vulnerable in having access to health, education and social security.

Background

- State of dual nature in Africa: European Colonization X Traditional Power structure
 - Focus on public servants
 - Changes in traditional schemes (e.g. burial societies)
 - Countries are mostly rural (poverty is more prevalent in rural areas)
 - Safety Nets: few in number and narrow in reach

Dilemma: European Model X African Reality

Background

- Development Framework:

New Partnership for Africa's Development (Africa Union, 2001)

- Focus on Poverty Eradication

- Peace and Security, Governance

- Regional Cooperation

- Increased investment in Agriculture, building and improving infra-structure

- Diversification of production and exports

Background

- 1980's: Structural Adjustment Programmes (SAPs) – FOCUS on Safety Nets – In Kind transfers (food or agricultural inputs);
- 1990's: Focus on Basic Services;
- Currently: Millenium Development Goals, Social Protection Strategies
- Moving from food aid to cash transfers:
“Predictable hunger with predictable cash transfers’
- 2006: Livingstone Intergovernmental Conference on Social Protection – focus on cash transfer.
- Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers still neglect Social Protection

Background

- Social Assistance as a concession and not as a right;
- Case for 'social protection bringing economic growth';
- HIV/AIDS Pandemic: 22.5 million people affected in the Sub-Saharan Africa (UNAIDS, 2007) – OVCs (1.200.000 in South Africa);
- Low coverage of education and health;
- Little infra-structure built after colonization and destruction in Civil Wars (Angola had 50% of infra-structure destroyed);
- Lack of data;
- Governance: corruption and political instability;
- Lack of trained personnel.

Background

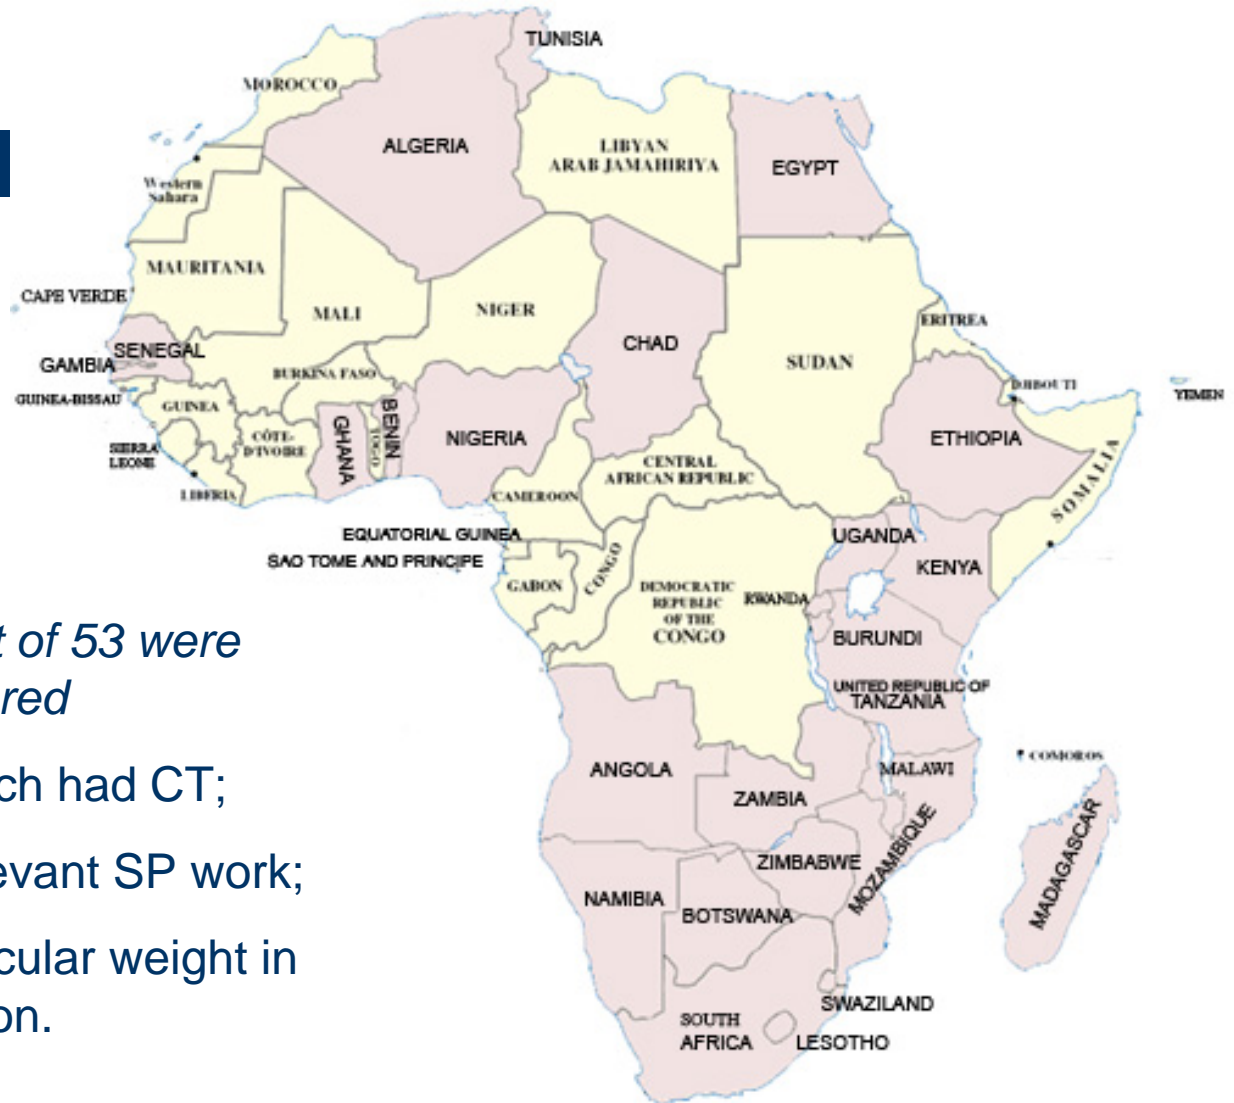

Policy Options:

- Pension Funds;
- Public Works;
- Food Aid;
- School and Hospital Vouchers;
- Increasing Cash Transfers.

Lack of overarching frameworks and strategic direction.

Major role of the donor community.

Division by countries

33 countries out of 53 were considered

- Countries which had CT;
- Countries with relevant SP work;
- Country with particular weight in its region.

Categories of Countries

- 1) Top countries in Social Protection:
- 2) Most developed countries;
- 3) Rapidly evolving countries in SP Programmes;
- 4) Countries in Dynamic Early State of SP development;
- 5) Countries with Limited Social Protection Schemes;
- 6) Countries in Civil War or Recently Emerged from Conflict.

Top Countries in Social Protection
